

Give the gift of music this Christmas!

Pay for lessons offered through YAM at the OHC to a special person deserving of an equally special gift.

For the low cost of $50, your loved one will receive six 45 minute lessons with quality instructors held weekly at the OHC, a gift certificate that applies to any instrument of his or her choice, and an ornament.

Lessons are available in guitar, mandolin, fiddle, and banjo. Lessons will begin the second and third weeks in January and run through February.

Certificates can be mailed to the person presenting the gift or picked up at the OHC.*

Instruments are also available to rent for $25. Instruments will be distributed the first day of classes in January.

To purchase lessons or for more information please contact Emily Hopkins by phone at 638-2224 or by email at hopkins@oconeheritagecenter.org.

*Lessons must be pre-paid in the form of cash only in order to receive the gift certificate and ornament.
